Dr. Katie Rowan

ELEMENTARY HONOR CHOIR, 2026

Dr. Katie Rowan graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Music from Belhaven University in 2014. After performing and teaching professionally for several years, she returned to school and received a Master of Music in Piano Performance from Mississippi College in 2021. Soon after, Dr. Rowan received her certification from the Music Teachers National Association and started participating in events and conferences with the local chapter, Mississippi Music Teachers Association. She finished her Doctorate in Music Education from Belhaven University in 2026.

At Belhaven, Dr. Rowan plays piano collaboratively with students and ensembles and teaches lessons and piano classes. She also assigns and oversees collaborative professional and student pianists, assignments, and contracts for the music department.

Dr. Rowan has been an active performer in her community for over a decade. She is involved in local performances, including high-school productions, church services, and concerts. She loves participating in frequent community events and is passionate about connecting her students with professional opportunities. She believes classroom learning combined with real-world experience builds an essential foundation for students seeking music careers.
